Forward Looking Statements and Non-GAAP Information

Certain comments made in this presentation may be characterized as forward looking under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are based on the company's current assumptions regarding future business and financial performance. Those statements by their nature address matters that are uncertain to different degrees. Those statements involve a number of factors that could cause actual results to differ materially. Additional information concerning these factors is contained in the Company's filings with the SEC. Copies are available from the SEC, from the IBM website, or from IBM Investor Relations. Any forward-looking statement made during this presentation speaks only as of the date on which it is made. The company assumes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements except as required by law; these charts and the associated remarks and comments are integrally related and are intended to be presented and understood together.

In an effort to provide additional and useful information regarding the company's financial results and other financial information as determined by generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), the company also discusses, in its earnings press release and earnings presentation materials, certain non-GAAP information including year to year change in revenue for Red Hat normalized for historical comparability, revenue normalized to exclude Kyndryl, revenue adjusting for divested businesses and currency, operating earnings, other "operating" financial measures, including free cash flow, adjusted free cash flow, net cash from operating activities excluding Global Financing receivables, and adjustments for currency. The rationale for management's use of this non-GAAP information is included as Exhibit 99.2 to the company's Form 8-K submitted to the SEC on October 20, 2021. The reconciliation of non-GAAP information to GAAP is included on the slides entitled "Non-GAAP Supplemental Materials" in this presentation, as well as in Exhibit 99.1 to the company's Form 8-K submitted to the SEC on October 20, 2021. CEO Perspective

"With the separation of Kyndryl early next month, IBM takes the next step in our evolution as a platform-centric hybrid cloud and AI company.

We continue to make progress in our software and consulting businesses, which represent our higher growth opportunities. With our increased focus and agility to better serve clients, we are confident in achieving our medium-term objectives of mid-single-digit revenue growth and strong free cash flow generation."

- Arvind Krishna, IBM Chairman and CEO
